SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Individuals who need accommodation are required to submit this "Request for Accommodation" form along with supporting documentation (as outlined below).

- Individuals with a psychological condition will be required to submit a Psychological Assessment. The assessment should have been conducted within the last 5 years. It must be signed by a licensed medical professional (registered to practice in Canada) and include an Individual Education Plan (IEP). It should outline the professional's recommendation(s) for the type of accommodation required by the individual.
- Individuals with a medical/physical condition will be required to submit Medical Documentation. The documentation must be from a licensed medical professional (registered in Canada). The document must be on the professional's letterhead, both dated and signed and it should outline the illness. It should also indicate if the illness is short-term or chronic/permanent and include the professional's recommendation for the type of accommodation required by the individual. Note Medical notes or script will not be accepted.

Please list the accommodation being requested:

WHEN TO SUBMIT REQUEST

Whenever possible, individuals requesting accommodation are encouraged to submit their request immediately following their course enrolment. This will ensure that the accommodation being requested can be arranged well in advance. If individuals are already enrolled in a course and did not previously submit a request for accommodation, requests should be submitted at least 4 weeks prior to a requested or already scheduled exam date or Seminar session.
